R. S. Sideling, who was for six years pastor of a church at East Concord, Vt., will speak on "Socialistic Ideas" at Tool Sharpeners' hall, Quinlan block, Thursday evening, May 7th, at 7:30. He is called an able speaker and it is hoped those interested in one of the important questions of the day will endeavor to be present.

According to law the pass books issued by all savings banks in Vermont are to be verified with the individual accounts at the banks once in five years, and this being the year for the work, Inspector of Finance F. S. Platt of Poultney has designated May as the month in which it shall be done. All depositors are requested to turn in their books.

The ladies of the Church of the Good Shepherd are looking forward to having a large crowd in Miles' hall Thursday evening May 7, to their literary entertainment. They are sure it is worthy your patronage. Please take note of the excellent programme and only charging the small sum of 15 cents when it is worth at least twenty-five. Come and make merry with them.

The Young People's Union of the Universalist church is pleased to announce that Mrs. Mary A. Livermore, of Melrose, Mass., will speak in this city on Thursday evening at 8:15 o'clock, at the church. It is a rare privilege that is offered Barre people to hear a woman so widely and favorably known as Mrs. Livermore. Tickets at 25 cents each are to be sold at W. H. Gladding's store by Geo. L. Bates and other members of the society.

GRANITEVILLE.

A special train will leave Langdon's this evening at 6 o'clock for Montpelier, going by way of Westerville and stopping at Barre. Returning the train will leave Montpelier after the evening session of the Woodmen convention after 12 o'clock.

Some Poisonous Woods. Mountain laurel wood is used in making combs. The leaves are poisonous to some animals. Black wild cherry timber is much valued in cabinet work. The bark is highly medicinal. The leaves when wilted are poisonous to cattle. Of dogwood, weavers' spools and handles of carpenter's tools are made.

A Great Glutton. The greatest glutton of antiquity was Albinus, the Roman, who at one breakfast ate 500 figs, 100 peaches, 10 melons, 100 small birds and 400 oysters.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup seems especially adapted to the needs of the children. Pleasant to take; soothing in its influence. It is the remedy of all remedies for every form of throat and lung disease.

Ten thousand demons gnawing away at one's vitals couldn't be much worse than the tortures of itching piles. Yet there's a cure. Doan's Ointment never fails.
